

MONROE COUNTY

Affordable housing topic of local meeting

Herald-Times
October 5, 2010

Rental property owners and managers are invited to an informational session about the need for affordable housing, offered by the Community and Family Resources Commission in partnership with the Bloomington Housing Authority and the Monroe County Circles Initiative.

The meeting will be at 5:30 p.m. today in the council chambers at City Hall, 401 N. Morton St. It will address the need for affordable housing in Bloomington and Monroe County, and how property owners can benefit by renting to low- and moderate-income residents.

Presenters will offer information pertinent to property owners, and landlords and residents of Section 8 housing will share their experiences.

The Housing and Neighborhood Development Department will be present to answer questions.
